Audience Review

Scenario 1 – Legislative Committee

You are presenting your bill to a committee of Youth & Government delegates. Many delegates have not read your bill in detail and will decide whether it should move forward after hearing debate.

Scenario 2 – Public Testimony

You have two minutes to provide testimony to a Hawai‘i legislative committee considering a bill that would improve access to mental health services in schools.

Scenario 3 – Student Council Campaign

You are running for Student President. You have three minutes to explain your priorities and convince fellow students to vote for you.

Scenario 4 – Community Organization

You have been invited to speak at a community meeting about organizing a neighborhood beach cleanup and recruiting volunteers.

Scenario 5 – Media Interview

A local news reporter asks why your proposal matters and challenges you with difficult questions. You have less than one minute to explain your position clearly.

Scenario 6 – TED Style Presentation

You have been invited to deliver a ten-minute talk about how young people can create change in their communities through civic action.

Scenario	Purpose	Tone	Language	Evidence	Length	Call to Action
Legislative Committee
Public Testimony
Campaign Speech
Community Presentation
Media Interview
TED Talk						